* July, 1978 I obtain the above information from my Uncle Arthur Gordon Greenwood at Silver Lake, Ontario.

To the best of his memory his grandfather was from Three Rivers, Quebec and worked on the lake boats.

A story told him in England during W.W. II : A lot of Greenwoods in Lancashire, Yorkshire some went to Brittany in France when owned by England. Brittany taken over by France English people living their unable to return to England, and made to take French names.

Is this why early Greenwood name was spelled B ?

Also told a number of the English in Brittany in later years went to Long Island, N. Y.

Dieppe January 26/78

Dear Madam

We received your letter dated December 7, 1977, and we apologize for our delay in answering you. The parish of St Remy and the church which bears the same name still exist in Dieppe.

Your ancestor, Jacques Aubuchon-Desalliers lived at the time of Charles Le Moyne. He was baptized at St. Remy on August 2, 1626. He landed at Quebec in 1641 at the age of 15.

We have traces (History of Longueuil by Robert Rumilly - Rumilly - Page 10) of Jean Aubuchon an important competitor to Charles Le Moyne who was eliminated after being caught in the act with the Surgeon's wife. He was banished by the Governor Maisonneuve.

He was the next largest commercial dealer after Charles Le Moyne and Jacques Le Bar.

We have referred your letter to the "Société des Amis" of "Vieux Dieppe", and they eventually will let you know the information they have about your ancestor.

We attach the guide published by the office of Tourism at Dieppe.

Accept, Madam, our earnest regards

The President
